

Harrison Potter

Associate

New York Brokerage

Current responsibilities

Harrison is a member of one of the largest advisory teams in commercial real estate, consisting of 17 brokers who completed over 10 million square feet of leasing across the globe in 2019.

He has advised companies and organizations across a variety of industries on their occupancy needs, specializing in creating thoughtful strategies and structuring sophisticated and financially advantageous transactions. His responsibilities include market analysis, options development, strategic planning and negotiation.

Harrison also devotes a portion of his practice to landlord representation, leveraging his understanding of tenants and the marketplace to create leasing strategies for some of New York's most prominent landlords. Current agencies include 99 Park Avenue, 579 Fifth Avenue, 1200 Avenue of the Americas and 24 W 57th Street.

Experience

Before joining JLL, Harrison expanded his real estate education through several key internships with firms including Eastern Consolidated and Saugatuck Commercial Real Estate, working with landlords and tenants in the sale and leasing of property, as well as consulting with governments and municipalities on economic development initiatives.

Education and affiliations

Harrison earned a bachelor's degree in government from Hamilton College in Clinton, NY, where he served as captain of the men's varsity rowing team. He sits on the board of the Friends of Hamilton Rowing alumni association and is actively involved with several non-profit organizations. Harrison is a licensed real estate salesperson in the State of New York.
